

9204 Harvest Lane - 3+ BR/3BA 2,850 SF Scheduled for Completion Spring 2018 $529,000

The core of this thoughtfully-planned home features an open concept kitchen, dining, and great room with adjacent pocket study, plus a generous master suite and guest bedroom/bathroom. While this is plenty of space for the down-sizer, on the opposite wing of the home, a flexible space awaits. Whether you use the guest wing with private entrance for an age-in-place parent or college kids home for the summer or turn the vaulted living room into a family room, man cave or theater room, you will love the flexibility of these options in a single story home!

If you reserve this home now, you can make all of the remaining finish selections!
